The Store That Pays No Rent

NEW YORK, March 3.—How would you like to come home at night to an apartment that has forty-four rooms and thirteen baths? That is what you would do if you were the New Yorker who has just leased a flat of that size for $25,000 a year at 420 Park avenue. It is in a new building that has only recently been completed and is the last word in apartments.

The lessee is not from Utah. He just has some of money and time of life in a big down town hotel he decided to get a roomy place of his own where he could stretch and all that sort of things. There are four members of his family and there are three separate dancing rooms and an ice skating pavilion which can be frozen over in a short time.

There is also a Turkish bath with a rubber in attendance at all hours. Also there is a miniature bar where a mixologist with a record will do all that is required. In the concert room is almost every conceivable musical instrument and a big pipe organ which plays every morning. It will take about fifteen servants to manage the establishment.

A few years ago Ed Morton was struggling along on $30 a week with a wife and family to support. Then Aladdin waved his lamp. It is a story of the new avenue of opportunity that has opened up in New York, that of song writing.

Morton has written such hits as "When You Were a Tulp," "On the Way to Maudslay," "If We Can't Be the Same Old Sweethearts," and the "Mother" song. The other day he purchased a loft building ten stories high with part of his earnings.

A little further down town is a skyscraper that was recently purchased by Fred Stone, the actor. Vernon Castle, now off to dance the German to death, is said to have invested heavily in New York real estate just before he departed, and Amelia Bingham, the actress, is a large property owner which, which shows frivolity pays sometimes.

Al Johnson has a new version of the old adage: "Do right and fear no man." Here it is: "Don't write and fear no woman."

Mayor Mitchell has put a spike in "Water Wagon Week" for New York. The health department had scheduled it to begin last Sunday. Arrangements were made to have a water wagon drive through the white light zone carrying signs recommending the use of water instead of cocktails. This was eliminated. All reference to strong drink as "booze" was also eliminated. And has been banished from the advertising literature: "Alcohol is a poison that never does any one good, and always, in the long run, even if taken moderately, does damage. The only safe way with alcohol is never to touch it, any more than you would drink carbolic acid."

A New York fashion shop does not believe in taking chances. It sold a Denver woman finery to the extent of $14,000 and has just sued both her present husband and former husband for the bill.

The dog show at Madison Square Garden illustrated the sweep of the craze to own dogs in New York. Most of the entries were far from the exclusive sections and a reporter with a nose for news found that the canines were owned in the majority of instances by married couples who were childless. The Boston terrier and the Pekinese dogs seem to be the most popular breed but there is a growing demand for Airdales.

Since Jean Crones put soup in disfavor the silence in the Broadway luncheon has been simply eloquent.

Dewey's Stock Feed

costs no more than common kinds, even though it is made from the choicest of selected ingredients and is free from poisonous weed seeds, elevator dust and other trash. One bag of Dewey's Stock Feed will convince you that no other stock feed is identical to a place in your barn. Try it today.

There is wisdom in parents supplying such favorites as these, rather than permitting their children to do their own candy buying on the unwise basis of quantity rather than quality.

The craving of children for sweets is a natural one and it is a wise parent who appreciates this and supplies only the purest and best candy. It's always fresh.

CAN YOU CARRY MONEY IN YOUR POCKET AND NOT SPEND IT?

If you can then you are one of the exceptions. The majority who save and get ahead do so by systematically putting their money in the bank—where they can not spend it on the impulse of the moment. The Merchants National Bank affords you this protection. Avail yourself at once of it.
